

Financial strength

A solid foundation for a secure future

Rated "A" for excellent balance sheet strength and operating performance 22 years in a row.¹

When you purchase life insurance, you want to be sure the insurer is financially sound and going to be around a long time.

The origins of Foresters Financial™ date back to 1874 when The Independent Order of Foresters (IOF) was founded as a fraternal benefit society. Fraternal benefit societies operate on a not-for-profit basis. Foresters profits go towards fulfilling our purpose: to enrich family and community well-being.

Since our humble beginnings, Foresters has grown into an international financial services provider with over 2 million members² in the US, Canada, and the UK. Foresters maintains a strong financial position with assets of $14.8 billion, liabilities of $13.3 billion, and a surplus of $1.6 billion.³

For 22 consecutive years, the independent rating agency A.M. Best has given The IOF an "A" (Excellent) rating for excellent balance sheet strength and operating performance. In addition, DBRS Morningstar, the world's fourth largest credit ratings agency, has also confirmed IOF's "A" Financial Strength Rating and Issuer Rating.⁴

The IOF's Risk-Based Capital (RBC) ratio exceeds the guidelines developed by The National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) to make sure insurers set minimum levels of capital to support their business.

Strong enough to stand on our own

At Foresters, we carefully manage our own financial reserves. Fraternal benefit societies, like The IOF, are not members of State Guaranty Associations and cannot be assessed to pay for the insolvency of other carriers. In the event the reserves of a class of certificates become impaired, Foresters members may be subject to a special assessment to maintain reserves. However, Foresters has assessed members only once in 1913 for certificates issued before 1898.

Foresters focuses on strong operational performance and careful management in order to withstand adverse business and market conditions. We continue to innovate products and services that go beyond financial planning to provide benefits that empower you – our clients and members – to make a positive difference in the world.
